

Could you be the REDSTONES Academy Apprentice?

Win a FREE franchise territory to open your own successful estate agency and letting business.

REDSTONES are looking property professionals with the knowledge, skills, vision and above all, ambition to run their dream estate agency and letting business.

Once in a Lifetime Opportunity

If you have the potential and unique entrepreneurial ability we're looking for, we will reward you with a once in a lifetime opportunity.

The Rewards

A FREE franchise territory to open your own successful estate agency and letting business is a rare and valuable prize. As a franchisee, you will gain the full support of Redstones, in terms of our coveted business model and full support programme to ensure your new business succeeds. The winner can choose their preferred territory postcodes and trade as soon as authorisation training has been completed.

The Candidate

We're only looking for the best candidates for this exceptional opportunity. Ideal candidates are existing business owners interested in re-branding to the prestigious Redstones brand or professionals who have worked in the industry for a minimum of two years and have the skills and drive to run their own business.

The Criteria

Candidates must be prepared to enter a competitive selection process and prove why they should be our Redstones Academy Apprentice.

Our apprentice must possess sufficient experience of the property sector and understand the principles and dynamics of business development. They also require sufficient funds to maintain their success after the business is launched, such as the cost of the Redstones Marketing Ready Package (worth £7,000).

The Application Process

The initial stage is to complete an application form and send us your CV. All applicants will be required to conduct a presentation and participate in an interview.

Once we have shortlisted, a winner, as well as our 2nd and 3rd place candidates will be announced.
